Sunday, May 6

G10: Winner G8 vs. Winner G9 1:30 p.m. (Hunnicutt Field)---championship

Last Year's Tournament:

Ohio Valley survived a trip through the loser's bracket, the longest rain delay in organized baseball history, and an 18-hour day at the ballpark to claim the school's first WVIAC championship. The Fighting Scots fell 11-0 to Concord in their opening contest, but swept through the remainder of the event in style. OVU routed Davis & Elkins 17-5 and edged Shepherd 5-4 to stay alive on Saturday. Sunday saw the Fighting Scots endure an 8:54 rain delay before they rallied to knock out West Virginia State 10-9. Chad Porter's crew finally celebrated a championship at 1:28 a.m. on Monday morning when they recorded the final out in a 14-5 win against Concord.

WVIAC Tournament on the Radio and Web:

Six games from Princeton's Hunnicutt Field will be broadcast at www.smallcollegesportsweb.net. Reid Amos, the voice of the WVIAC Network, will have the call. All games may be heard on ESPN 1050 WAMN in the Princeton/Bluefield area.

The pre-game show starts approximately 15 minutes prior to game time.

Looking at the Future:

WVIAC baseball will move to a three division format next season with the addition of Seton Hill and Pitt Johnstown. The top two teams in each division will advance to the WVIAC Baseball Tournament. Pitt Johnstown becomes eligible for the league championship next season, while Seton Hill will become eligible for the title in 2009 when the program completes their NCAA provisional period. A look at next season's divisional setup follows:

Northern Division: Pitt Johnstown, Seton Hill, Shepherd, West Liberty State, Wheeling Jesuit.

Central Division: Alderson-Broadus, Davis & Elkins, Fairmont State, Salem International, West Virginia Wesleyan.

Southern Division: Bluefield State, Charleston, Concord, Ohio Valley, West Virginia State.
